

CANDIDATE PROFILE

NAME: Teresa Bustamante

DEPARTMENT/OFFICE: Office of Procurement Services

ACADEMIC BACKGROUND:

In Peru, she obtained a degree in Translations and in the United States completed a Masters degree in Business Administration, and at the University of Strasbourg, she undertook courses on Human Rights.

EXPERIENCE

Her career in the Organization of American States began in 1993, when she worked in Haiti at the OAS-UN International Civilian Mission (MICIVIH) where she was in charge of monitoring and evaluating the Human Rights conditions in the country. Consequently, she undertook positions with the Administration for the MICIVIH and the 1995 Electoral Mission in Haiti. During 2006, she was in-charge of the logistic and preliminary work for the 1996 Electoral Mission in Suriname.

During the migration phase to the financial system OASES, from 1997 until 2001, as a consultant, she managed the Operations Away from Headquarters and in 2001 she became staff of the OAS in the Department of Financial Services. Currently, she is assigned to the Office of Procurement Services. Previous to her work with the OAS she worked in the administrative field within the Private Sector in Peru.

PERSONAL STATEMENT

Characterized by her dedication to the Organization, the high level of responsibility and professional ethics, as well as the institutional knowledge obtained, Teresa Bustamante will be an asset to the OAS Staff Committee.